

Fromm Institute, Winter Term, 2009
Educating Americans, Lecture Five: The Role of the Federal Government
Professor Brandfon

Words and Phrases Used in this Lecture:

Affirmative Action; Land Ordinance of 1785; Proposal for a National University; Morrill Act, 1862; Land Grant Colleges; Yale Report of 1828; Justin S. Morrill (Vt.), 1810-1898; Election of 1850; Republican Party Coalition—Know Nothing, or American Party-Anti-Nebraska Democrats, Whigs, Liberty Party, Free Soil Party; President James Buchanan, 1857-1861; Veto Message of February, 1859; Hatch Act, 1887; Agricultural Experiment Stations; Second Morrill Act, 1890; Smith-Hughes National Vocational Act, 1917; National Educational Association; John Dewey; United States Chamber of Commerce; National Association of Manufacturers; American Federation of Labor; National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education; Regulation; New Nationalism; Woodrow Wilson, President, 1913-1921; New Freedom; Louis Brandeis; G.I. Bill; Veterans Assistance Act, or Title II of the Serviceman's Readjustment Act of 1944; Bonus Army March of 1932; Mrs. Roosevelt; Rehabilitation Law of 1919; the Great Society; Senator Joseph Clark (Pa.); Barry Goldwater; Election of 1964; War on Poverty; Economic Opportunity Bill of 1964; Office of Economic Opportunity; Job Corps; Head Start; Elementary and Secondary Education Act, 1965; Title I.