I. Introduction
   A. Topics
   B. Cross References

II. Keeping Records
   A. Investments
      1) Purchase and Sale Dates
      2) Cash and Stock Dividends / Stock Splits
      3) Mutual Fund Transactions
      4) Reviewing Bank and Brokerage Statements
   B. Bank Accounts
   C. Life Insurance
      1) The parties to a Contract: the insurer, the insured, the Owner, the Beneficiary
   D. Taxes
      1) Keeping Prior Returns
      2) Estate and Gift Tax Return
      3) Pay Stubs
      4) Other Expenses: utilities, autos, telephone
   E. Credit Card Information
   F. Wills
   G. Revocable and Irrevocable Trusts
   H. Powers of Attorney
      1) For Financial Managements
      2) For Health Care Decisions

III. Retirement Plans
   A. Types
   B. Two IRAs: Traditional and Roth IRA
      1) Form 8606 Non-deductible contributions to an IRA
   C. Annuities
   D. Charitable Gifts and Bequests

IV. Estate Planning
   A. The “must have” Documents
      1) Will
      2) Revocable Trust
      3) Irrevocable Trust
      4) Life Insurance Trust
      5) Powers of Attorney
      6) Name, Address, Phone # of Fiduciaries: trustees, executors, attorney’s and CPA’s
   B. Documents where a revocable trust does not apply
      Ex: 401 K, IRA’s, retirement plans, Keogh Plans
   C. Keeping your estate plan current: divorces, children, grandchildren, changed circumstances
   D. Frequent Flyer Programs
V. Insurance
   A. Life Insurance
      1) Different Types: term, whole life, minimum deposit
      2) Identity of the insured
      3) Amount of coverage
      4) Incidents of Ownership
      5) Tax Considerations: life insurance trusts
      6) Annual Elections
      7) Insurance Funded Cross-Purchase Agreements
      8) Managing and Investing the Proceed
   B.
      1) Quality of the Insurer
      2) Tax Aspects
      3) Health and Long-Term Care Insurance
      4) Home Owners and Tenants
      5) Liability and Umbrellas
      6) Automobile
      7) Worker’s Compensation
      8) Disability

VI. Managing Your Money
   A. Overview
   B. Cash and Equivalents: money funds, Treasuries, mutual funds
   C. Common stocks
   D. Preferred stocks and bonds
   E. Real estate

VII. Managing Your Credit
    1) Significance of your Credit Score
    2) Three Credit Agencies
    3) Maintaining your Credit
    4) Dealing with Problems
    5) Debt Consolidations
    6) Cancelling a Card
    7) Handling Disputes: fraud
    8) Minimum Payments
    9) New Accounts
    10) Cash Advances
    11) Pay Day Loans
    12) Co-signing Credit Applications
    13) Alternative: borrowing from a bank
    14) Specific Types of Loan
         a) Automobile; cf. Leasing
         b) Home Improvement
         c) Letters of Credit
         d) FHA Guarantees
e) Amortization
f) Interest Only
g) Deductibility of Interest
h) College Loans
i) Floating or fixed rate

VIII. The Family Home
1) An Investment
2) A Tax Shelter
3) Empty Nest?
4) Sale of a Home: capital gains, installment financing, brokers
5) Section 1031 Like-Kind Exchanges
   Ex: Leasing to the buyer: options
6) The Importance of Stepped-Up Basis
7) Co-ops and Condos
8) Paying Off the Mortgage
9) Home Inspections
10) Property Taxes in California: Prop 13

IX. Income Taxes
A. Advisors: CPA, H&R Block, computer programs
B. Due Dates: 4/15, 10/15 (with extension's)
C. Supporting Documents
   1. Travel and Entertainment
   2. Medical
   3. State Income Taxes
   4. Interest
   5. Property Taxes
   6. Casualty Losses
   7. Employee Business Expenses
   8. Home Office
D. Avoiding an Audit
   1. Office and Field Audits
   2. Tax Shelters
   3. Revenue Agents and Special Agents
E. Income Tax Planning
F. Section 529 Plans: qualified tuition programs

X. Estate and Gift Taxation
1. Revocable Trust: avoiding probate, attorney fees
2. $5.4 Million Gift and Estate Tax Exemption Per Person
3. Stepped-Up Basis
4. The Importance of the estate tax return for basis
5. Fiduciaries: executor, trustee, attorney
6. The Problem with Joint Tenancy holdings
7. Gift Tax
   1. Annual Exclusion
   2. Lifetime Exemptions
   3. Coordination with the Estate Tax
8. Tangible Personal Property: §170(e)
9. Letter to Spouse and Executor
10. Pre-terminated heirs
11. The Problem with dollar requests
12. Beneficiaries and the need for trusts

XI. Organizing Your Retirement
A. How Much Income Will You Need?
B. Invasion of Principal
C. Life Expectancy and the IRS Tables
D. The Effect of Inflation on Bonds
E. Selecting a manager
F. Hidden Taxes and retirement plans: IRA’s, Keogh’s, Pension Plans
G. Professional help: attorney, CPA, Estate Planner, CFA
H. Annuities
I. Converting a traditional IRA to a Roth IRA
J. Paying off the mortgage
K. Moving
L. Reverse Mortgages
M. Inheriting An IRA
N. List of Assets
O. Safe Deposit Box List
P. Community Property Agreements: the tax advantage
Q. Social Security Benefits